

A Wedding Prayer

*Today is the beginning.
In the years that lie ahead
May you always share the love you have
This day as you are wed.*

*I pray you'll each be one on whom
The other can depend,
And may you share not only love,
But be each other's friend.*

*Some hopes may not be realized,
Some dreams may not come true,
But many of them will, I know,
To bless the two of you.*

*Within the home that you will have,
I pray you'll always find
Contentment, joy, security,
Good health and peace of mind.*
